Speaker Biographies

A special thank you to our speakers for investing their gifts, time, and expertise to serve the CCNI community and Christian coaches globally.

Keisa Capers, PCC

Now based in the Carolinas, Keisa has over 20+ years of cross-cultural mission work in, but not limited to, Africa, Asia, and the Pacific Islands centered around her heart's passion for staff care and leadership development of global leaders. Keisa started her coaching journey in 2009 and now holds a Professional Coach Certification with the International Coach Federation. Her heart is to coach leaders to align their work with their personal values so they can thrive wherever they are called. Having experienced firsthand the power of coaching, she wants to see global leaders tap into the power that coaching provides. She loves international travel, experiencing new cultures, and cooking international menus.

Sackeena Gordon-Jones, PhD

Dr. Sackeena Gordon-Jones is founder and chief coaching officer for Transformation Edge Coaching & Consulting, where they focus on helping leaders and organizations transform the way they think, work, lead and live. An inspirational Global Speaker, Master Certified Coach, Coach Educator, Strategist and Leadership Development Consultant with over 20 years' experience in executive & leadership development, cultural intelligence, coach training and diversity, equity and inclusion. Sackeena declares her purpose as this: I exist to serve God by Evoking Potential out of those ready to live intentionally and more fully. Her purpose is expressed through facilitation/training, speaking, consulting and coaching. A leader in the coaching field, Sackeena has served on the local, regional and global ICF Boards, and the Board of the Association of Coach Training Organizations (ACTO). Sackeena is also a fellow with the Institute of Coaching. Her clients range from the Life and Bio Science sectors to High-Tech, Academic Medical Centers and Higher-Ed Institutions, Government/Military, Nonprofits, Churches, Family-owned Business and Membership Associations. When not working, Sackeena can be found enjoying time with her family and friends, at the beach, in the mountains or with a good book.

Linda Hedberg, PCC, CPCC

As a life and leadership coach, Linda Hedberg helps those asking "What's next for me?" discover and activate greater purposes in their lives. She is a coach, writer and speaker with an unwavering belief that we are all created for greater purposes and she wants to see those purposes activated in everyone! In addition to working with coaching clients, Linda trains new life and leadership coaches as an instructor with Professional Christian Coaching Institute and serves as a mentor coach to new coaches pursuing their professional credentials. For aspiring and new Christian coaches, she offers an ebook called The Complete Guide to Christian Coach Training and hosts an informational website called ChristianCoachingResources.com. Coaching for 18 years, Linda has been a lifetime member of CCNI since 2003.

Charles Hooper, MCC

Charles is an MCC Executive Coach and ordained pastor with the Presbyterian Church in America. The combination of biblical theology and professional coaching has been a fascination ever since 2006 when Charles first experienced coaching. Charles' business motto is "Accelerating Leaders from Complexity to Clarity" and he works with high-potentials, leaders in new roles, and leaders developing new leaders. He lives in Atlanta Georgia and is married to Jill for 32 years and they have 6 adult sons. More information can be found at www.hoopercoaching.com.

Karyn Humphries, CPLC

Karyn is a graduate of Northeastern Illinois University, credentialed as a Certified Professional Life Coach, certified in emotional intelligence (BarOn EQ-i) and conflict dynamics (CDP), as well as qualified by the Association for Psychological Type in MBTI® personality types. After 12 years of non-profit management Karyn was called into coaching and ministry at a multi-site church in Nashville, TN. Initially bi-vocational, the Lord eventually moved her into full-time coaching. She serves pastors, ministry leaders, missionaries and Christian business leaders. Her mission is to make a difference in the difference makers. She consults with churches and non-profits on leadership, emotional intelligence, mission & vision and team development. She has been coaching for 7 years and has been an international speaker and trainer for over 20 years. She specializes in emotional intelligence and self-leadership so her clients can gain emotional and spiritual harmony, while crafting a more purposeful and satisfying life in Christ. Her vision is to see emotionally smart and spiritually strong ministry leaders who are an irresistible witness of Christ. Born and raised in Chicago proper, Karyn and her family moved to Nashville, TN where they enjoy mild winters and resplendent springs. She and her husband Scott love to travel, enjoy their 3 grandchildren and spend as much time as they can outside on their porch with friends and family.

Dave Mead, ACC

Dave and Melody Mead have served with the Navigators for 34 years beginning at Vanderbilt University, then overseas in Nancy, France, and at the United States Military Academy, West Point, NY. In 2009, Dave became the Navigators Military Director, and for the first time, experienced the power of coaching. He is currently serving as a Nav coach. In February 2017, Dave founded WeAlign LLC, a strength-based, joy-focused coaching firm. He became a Certified StrengthsFinder® Coach in October 2016 and an International Coaching Federation (ICF) Associate Certified Coach in February 2020. He has helped over 200 clients grow in their “being” and “belonging” through aligning their designs. Over the last four years, WeAlign has grown to over 50 coaches located in 28 states and 3 countries. Dave retired from 31 years in the Army (8 years on Active Duty and 23 years as an Army Reservist). He commanded at the Company, Battalion, and Brigade levels. Dave is Ranger, Airborne, and Air Assault qualified and is a graduate of the Army War College. Dave is Chairman of two Boards of Directors: Life Model Works and the Caribbean Ministries Association. He and his wife live in Colorado Springs and New York. They have two children and three grandsons. Dave values fun and freedom; enjoys reading and sometimes golf; and is at awe with God’s love and the influence of coaching.

Rich Weigel, PhD, CCC

Dr. Weigel is the CEO for ProEdCoach – Professional Educators Coaching Services. He leads a team of coaches and professionals that provide Leadership and Executive Coaching for leaders from in all walks of life but with a specialty in the educational arena. He and his team provide professional development for schools that want to transform their work, improve morale, build a vision for the future, and improve their results. Dr. Weigel is in his second term as President of Christian Coaches Network International. He is also the Vice President of the Shared Ethics Advisory Commission in NW Indiana and was appointed as the commissioner/representative for the city of Hobart, Indiana. One of Dr. Weigel's certifications and qualifications is that of a StrengthsFinder Coach Champion. Within that context he has written a book to help Christian Leaders to learn about their inherent talents and he works with those leaders to develop those natural talents into strengths to accomplish more and overcome obstacles. Rich has a wide and varied background that includes working in New York City for Goldman Sachs, acting off-Broadway, and running a theatrical production company. After the birth of his first child, he moved back to the Midwest to become a teacher, principal, assistant superintendent and finally a superintendent of schools. He has 5 university degrees and post-doctoral credits Notre Dame, Eastern Michigan University, and the University of Toledo. As he likes to say – “Learning is never full.” He is currently writing two more books. He is providing coaching services for people across the country, serving at church, and doing whatever he can to help others. His theme Bible verse for this 4th quarter of his life is: 2 Peter 1:3 (ESV) - His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence.

Special thank you to Debbie Fawcett, Director of Operations as she transitions after pouring her heart, time, and efforts into serving the CCNI community. Many of you have interacted with Debbie as she tirelessly sought to serve members and enhance the member experience. We express gratitude to her for her service and blessings on her future endeavors.
